

WATER'S EDGE RESTAURANT & BATA BAR

WELCOME! We are so happy to have you dine with us today. Your server will be with you shortly; however, while you wait please read this very important information.

General Guidelines to keep you safe and our operation running:

- Maintain a distance of six feet from those around you, including from WEEC staff.
- Avoid handshaking, hugging, fist-bumping, or any form of touching.
- Employees and customers should continue to wear facial coverings where applicable or required; removal of masks is appropriate when customers are consuming food and beverage.
- Avoid exchanging money or personal items, whenever possible.

Please be aware the Health Department will be inspecting businesses in Harford County, including private clubs and restaurants. Businesses that are found not to be following their regulations will be fined and/or closed. We ask our members and guests to help us implement the above-noted procedures, so we keep each other safe and keep our venue open.

Thank you for your assistance and your support and we appreciate you dining with us!
